WORKMAN'S BILL FRAMED

By Mr. Nichols of Bridport, an act acts of 1912, relating to the open season for wild ducks. (Changes season from Bills Introduced in Senate.

ton, relating to the savings banks and trust companies; section 61 of act 158 of 1910 amended, provided for amending from 10 to 15 per cent. surplus.
By Senator Brown of Windsor, relating to use of automobile or motor vehicle without consent of owner, providing a penalty of not more than $300 fine.
By Senator Divoll of Windham, relating to action of scire facias, providing for reviving or enforcing the execution of a judgment.

By Senator Dunklee of Windham, relating to qualifications of voters in town meeting, to repeal 3417 of public statutes and amending 3415; person may vote if taxes are paid before Feb. 15 of year to vote.

By Senator Thomas of Lamoille, appropriating $1,000 for aid of town of Belvidere in construction of school building and maintenance of roads.

Three Senate bills were passed by the House without opposition yesterday afternoon, they being Senate bill 1, relating to the qualifications of voters; Senate bill 21, giving the board of armory commissioners the power to contract for the erection of armories with a town, city, incorporated village or individual; Senate bill 23, relating to stationery and supplies.

House bill 158, relating to suits brought in the name of the representative of a deceased person, was read the third time and passed. House bill 146, relating to the erection of a memorial to Commudore Thomas Macdonough, was reported favorably by the general committee and passed to a third reading. House bill 20, relating to persons loitering in public places, was returned from the Senate with a proposal of an amendment making the penalty any amount not over $20 and was adopted as amended on the part of the House. The bill relating to liquor licenses, No. 139, was reported adversely by the committee and a third reading was refused. This bill would permit the sale of cigars by licensees.

Mr. Soule of Albany offered an amendment to rule 41, which relates to the time limit for the introduction of bills in the House, which would extend the time from the first Tuesday in February until the second Tuesday in February.
The amendment was ordered to lie on the table.

The following bills were introduced in the House in addition to those published in yesterday's Times:

An act to amend section 5542 of the public statutes relating to auctioneers' licenses. Introduced by Hoadley of Tin-mouth.

Billings of Sharon; an act to exempt the property of the Sharon Masonic societies from taxation.

Stacey of Hartford; an act to aid the town of Hartford in building highways.

Hargrove of Peru; an act to provide for the payment to grand town jurors in the detection of crime.

The State House Addition.
A hearing of especial interest to Montpelier people and those who reside in close proximity will take place this evening when the building committee will meet for the purpose of considering House bill 148, which was introduced by Mr. Manchester of Hubbardston and would repeal the 1912 law relating to the erection of a $300,000 addition to the State House. The following figures from the auditor of accounts' office have been distributed among the legislators and tend to show the need of an addition to accommodate all state officials.

Information obtained from the office of auditor of accounts showing expenditures for offices of state officials who have no accommodation at present in the state capitol:

Rent, Lights, Etc., for State Offices for One Year.

(34) Secretary of state, (publicity department), rent, $40; lights, $2; water, $7 cents; secretary of state, (automobile department), rent, $120; lights, $8; water, $5.25.

(105) Bank commissioner, rent, $125; lights, $19; janitor, $30.

(11) Commissioner of taxes, rent, $500; lights, $25.

Purchasing agent, rent, $300; lights, $75; janitor, $20.

Library commissioner, rent, $300; lights, $15; janitor, $180; fuel, $80.

(65) Livestock commissioner, rent, $250.

(130) Public service commission, rent, $230.

(84) Highway commissioner, rent, $100.

(70) Fish and game commissioner, rent, $50.

(68) Factory inspector, rent, $75; lights, $12; fuel, $16.

The figures at the left indicate the number of miles the offices are from the capitol.

The following are officials who should have offices in the state capitol and for whom no provision is possible: Commissioner of agriculture, commissioner of weights and measures, state forester, secretary of board of education, insurance commissioners, state geologist, state board of health, legislative reference librarian.

The bill was the subject of discussion at a caucus of Democrats and Progressives held in the supreme court room last evening. Much was said on both sides of the question. Mr. Stone of Woodford remarked in his speech against repeal:

"There are 11 state officers who have offices outside the State House at a cost to the state in rent, lights, heat, etc., of $2,586.40 annually. This cost excludes the cost of fire insurance on the state property in these offices and the mileage involved in scattering the offices outside of Montpelier. Including these, the total annual cost is $3,000 for these outside offices. There are eight officers not provided for in the State House, including the commissioner of agriculture, the secretary of the state board of health, the secretary of the state board of education. The need of more room in many of the offices is great, especially in the state auditor's office.

"The proposed act would give the commissioners the power to construct a new building east of the State House, and to move into it the state library and supreme court room.

"The present library wing would be made into as many committee rooms as possible. The lack of committee rooms is an important factor in making the sessions drag out, and this lack is already being greatly felt. Adequate committee facilities would, at a conservative estimate, save the state ten days of legislative time and would shorten the session that much. The legislative session costs about $2,000 per day.

"So the total saving biennially would be the $200,000 of legislative salaries and expenses, plus $6,000 for office rent. The total cost would be the interest on $300, 000. This could be borrowed at 3 1/2 per cent, but putting it at 3 per cent, it would cost the state annually $11,250, or $22,500 biennially. The biennial saving, therefore, would be $3,200." evening of Thursday, Feb. 11. The caucus will be held in the Socialist auditorium on Granite street and at the same time an citizens' caucus will be in progress at Howard hall. As a result of the meeting of the city central committee Sunday afternoon, the Socialists are now in possession of a complete nomination slate. A prominent member of the party intimated to-day that any premature announcement of the personnel of the ticket could not be made, as every proposed nominee had not as yet consented to stand for a nomination in the general caucus. Ward caucuses for members of the Socialist party are to be held on the evening of Friday, Feb. 12. Places of meeting are to be announced later in the week.

A. M. Morrison of South Main street received a message this morning advising him of the death of his uncle, Charles A.
Morrison, which occurred in Groton last night. Mr. Morrison was well known to many Barre people and had been a frequent visitor in this city. Early last fall he went to Burlington, where he undertook an operation for the removal of a tumor. At that time physicians advised him to have portions of the leg amputated, since his condition had been considered to be hopeless and the end was not unexpected. Mr. Morrison was 67 years old and leaves his wife and several children.
He has long been one of the prominent residents of Groton, holding a number of town offices, including that of mail commissioner, in which capacity he served several years. Mrs. A. M. Morrison and daughter, Elizabeth, went to Groton tories of races to be held within the present week. Among Barre horsemen, Sister Hal is considered as a find and many are predicting that her success in the ice races at Montpelier will be repeated in Windsor county.

Barre bakers and bread dealers are not considering seriously a proposal to increase materially the price of their products, but the condition caused by the sudden flight of wheat prices is causing much speculation among consumers as to what the ultimate outcome of the jump will be.
Bakery men have seen fit to demand a slightly higher price for their doughnuts, but the staple price on cakes, pies and bread loaves is retained. Doughnuts that used to sell for 10 cents per dozen are now going for 12 cents and the sugar-coated variety, formerly retailed at one cent each, are being sold at 15 cents per dozen. Bread and stock flour brings $9 and $9.25 and there aren't very many promising signs of relief, it is said. Unless the situation becomes even more acute, it is not thought the bakers will reduce the size of their bread loaves or raise the price to the retailer.

HONORED BY TOWNSPEOPLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Nataniel A. Bucklin of Sudbury Married 50 Years.

Sudbury, Feb. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel A. Bucklin observed the 50th anniversary of their wedding last evening, a reception being given them by the townspeople.

Mr. Bucklin was born July 5, 1842, one of eight children of Nathaniel and Laura (Bourne) Bucklin. Mr. Bucklin was born August 21, 1844, one of eight children of Charles and Maryetta (Gau-son) Selleck. They were married February 1, 1865, at the bride's home in Shrewsbury by the Rev. Mr. Rusteld. To them have been born six children, all of whom are alive.

Mr. and Mrs. Bucklin purchased the property known as the Willard Pitts hotel, which contained a tavern, postoffice and store. They later built the store and the house which they now occupy.

Mr. Bucklin has been postmaster and merchant 35 years and has had the office of town clerk 50 years. In 1878 he represented the town of Sudbury in the legislature.

At the outbreak of the Civil war, Mr.
Bucklin was one of the first to enlist from this town, going out in Company 1st Vermont regiment on May 2, 1861, from Brandon.

He was mustered out on August 15, 1861, and re-enlisted in Company H, 5th Vermont regiment, on September 4, 1861. He was mustered out again on December 15, 1863, and re-enlisted the second time the same date. He was finally mustered out of the service on June 29, 1865, at Burlington, with the rank of quartermaster sergeant.

Mr. and Mrs. Bucklin enjoy exceptionally good health.

SPECIAL MASTER APPOINTED

To Hear the Plainfield School Case, Judge E. C. Mower of Burlington.

O. B. Wood, former principal of the Plainfield high school, dismissed by the school directors because of developments growing out of a disagreement between the principal and the janitor, appeared yesterday afternoon before Justice John H. Watson at his home in Montpelier, he being the acting chancellor in the case, and by agreement between the attorneys for Mr. Wood and the school directors, Judge E. C. Mower of Burlington was appointed special master, to take the evidence and report the findings. Justice Watson was obliged to appoint a special master because of the fact that he will be engaged at the term of supreme court which opened yesterday.

Mr. Wood is now conducting a private school in Plainfield and has at his school most of the pupils of the town.

FAVORED C. D. WATSON.

Democrats in Legislature Want Him for U. S. District Judge.

The Democrats in the legislature expressed themselves last night as in favor of Charles D. Watson of St. Albans as United States district judge of Vermont to succeed the late James L. Martin of Brattleboro. The vote in the caucus was 11 to 8, the minority candidate being Harland B. Howe of St. Johnsbury. On the first ballot an informal expression of opinion resulted in nine votes for Watson, five votes for Howe and four votes for T. P. Moloney of Rutland. It was explained that Mr. Moloney's health was not good and he would not be a candidate.

The Grounding Theory.

Candlemas, or groundhog day, as it is called in allusion to a popular tradition that the animal of the woodchuck on Feb.
2 have something to do with the length of the winter, dawned with a supplement to yesterday's snowstorm still in the air.
Toward noon, the woodchuck is believed to have ventured forth from his winter habitation quarters to test the quality of the weather. If snow remains on the ground he is believed, being represented as on the way, for the shadow of the animal could not be discerned to-day.
Once or twice the sun threatened to break through the clouds, but the snow closed in on the earth with renewed energy and there is little doubt that the woodchuck looked in vain for his own shadow. A conflicting idea is concealed in the following couplet and it may be that spring's arrival is more than six weeks away:

"If Candlemas day be dry and fair,
The half 't of the winter's come and fair;
If Candlemas day be wet and foul,
The half 't of the winter's gone and foul."
